Dear Sirs,

As you know, our firm has been retained to conduct a review of the family courts of Harris County, the conduct of some divorce lawyers, and the relationship between some lawyers and political contributions to the various judges presiding over the family courts in Harris County.

As part of this review, we have delved into a number of legal cases, including the Ron divorce (Harris County Cause Number 2014-49671). During our review of that case we noticed that Mr. Murray has an ongoing legal relationship with the family of Judge Moore. In Cause Number 2015-56500 filed in the 164th District Court, Mr. Murray was retained by Jennifer Moore, Individually and as Next Friend of M. Moore and W. Moore, to represent her in a lawsuit stemming from a June 25, 2015 motor vehicle accident. Jennifer Moore is the wife of Judge Moore. M. Moore and W. Moore are Judge Moore's children, Molly and Walker. No final judgement has been rendered in this case and according to the 164th District Court, this case is still active with a trial date set for some time during the two-week period beginning July 23, 2018. Not only is Mr. Murray representing Jennifer Moore in this lawsuit, but he appears to be doing so in conjunction with Judge Moore. The "Proposed Final Judgement" listed on the Harris County District Clerk's website shows Next Friend of minor Plaintiffs Molly Moore and Walker Moore, Jennifer Moore, appearing though her husband, along with Mr. Murray when the judgement is ultimately entered.

Can you please direct us to any court hearing or filing in which you disclosed this ongoing relationship? Furthermore, would you kindly provide Dolcefino Consulting of any invoices provided to the Moore family for Mr. Murray's representation, and if there are invoices, any documentation of payments for Mr. Murray's representation?
