I can do a timeline right now for you. Depending on the nature of the TRO that Ted gets you may or may not be able to fire him. You may be restrained from doing that. He can get an ex parte order, and there has to be a hearing within ten days to keep the order in force. If there is a TRO filed, I am pretty sure that the AG's office has to represent Tech in Court. Pat will know who to contact at the AG's office. I will get to work on the timeline right now.

The tv stations in Lubbock are saying Ted will file for a TRO tomorrow and will coach the bowl game. If we fire him he is no longer an employee and therefore cannot coach the team. We can fire him before or after a TRO can't we? Also, we need a time line of the facts and series of events. Do you have that? Sally Post can work with Grace on putting that together tomorrow. We need Sally to have enough information to be able to respond to news questions or correct incorrect statements that are in the press or on the air.

I have reviewed the ESPN report. Mike does not look good and Ted does not have his facts right. I could not read what the AJ had to say about this.

He did not sign either. He was suspended by G/B and G/M this afternoon. It is all over the news. The James family has been identified in the tv reports. Leach and Legget are reportedly looking at getting a TRO so he can coach the game. He is not helping himself. I can't believe he will not listen to anyone.

I am just checking in to see if Mike signed the letter and wrote an apology. I am in the Peruvian rainforest. I have internet access but not cell phone use right now.
